To conform with current Board policy and procedures, the rules eliminate the requirement that the respondent answer the Notice of Hearing and that the parties file post-hearing briefs. The rulemaking is to ensure consistency with A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 6, Article 10 and to conform with current Board policy and procedures.

7. Reference to any study that the agency relied on in its evaluation of or justification for the final rule and where the public may obtain or review the study, all data underlying each study, any analysis of the study and other supporting material:

9. The summary of the economic, small business, and consumer impact statement:

The rulemaking is primarily technical and administrative in nature. The purpose of the rulemaking is to ensure consistency with A.R.S. Technical changes suggested by the Staff of the Governor's Regulatory Review Council have been made between the notices of supplemental rulemaking, proposed rulemaking and the final rules, including the addition of R4-39-502(C) clarifying that the Board's decision after a hearing is a final administrative decision.

- b. A response filed under this rule shall briefly state respondent's position or defenses to the proceeding and shall specifically admit or deny each of the assertions contained in the notice. If the respondent is without or is unable to reasonably obtain knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an assertion, he shall so state, which shall have the effect of a denial.

- c. If the respondent fails to file a response within the time provided, the assertions contained in the Notice of Hearing shall be deemed to be admitted.

4. Service:

The Board or hearing officer may require a copy of any document to be served upon any other person as may be designated by them. An original of all documents shall be filed with the Board.

- 2. A motion for procedural order, unless made orally during a hearing, shall be made in writing stating the grounds with particularity and setting forth the relief sought. All motions shall be served upon all of the parties who shall then have ten (10) days after service of the motion to respond. If any party fails to timely respond or any party fails to appear at oral argument on the motion, if any, the Board or hearing officer may dispose of the motion summarily. Any party may request oral argument on any motion summarily. Any party may request oral argument on any motion, or the Board or hearing officer may on their own initiative require oral argument.

E. Stipulations:

Parties to any proceeding may by stipulation in writing agree upon any matter involved in the proceeding. If approved by the Board or hearing officer the stipulation shall be binding upon all parties to the proceeding or as between those parties stipulating. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the hearing officer or Board may require presentation of evidence or proof of stipulated facts for their consideration.

F. Prehearing Statements:

Not less than five (5) days before hearing, each party shall insure that the Board or hearing officer has received a prehearing statement which shall be so designated and which shall set forth with specificity the following:

- 2. A list of the issues of law and fact which the party submitting the prehearing statement believes to be material;
- 3. That all lists have been exchanged with the other parties to the proceeding; and
- 4. No other exhibits or witnesses shall be used during the hearing other than those listed and exchanged, except for good cause shown.

G. Prehearing Conferences:

The Board or hearing officer, upon application of a party, or upon their own motion, may call a conference with all parties at any time for the purpose of clarifying the procedural steps to be followed in a hearing, or clarifying or limiting the legal or factual issues involved in a proceeding.

H. In addition to the oral arguments and evidence presented at the hearing, the Board or hearing officer may consider written statements or memoranda presented by any party prior to or at the hearing. The Board or hearing officer may also allow for a period of time not to exceed a total of sixty (60) days after the hearing for the parties to submit post-hearing memoranda or proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Notices of Final Rulemaking

- ~~I.~~ The recommendation of the hearing officer shall be submitted to the Board within twenty (20) days of the completion of the hearing. The Board shall review the recommendation and may affirm, modify, reject, in whole or in part, the recommendation and may also remand it for further hearing or take evidence itself.
- ~~J.~~ The final decision of the Board must be made within ten (10) days of receipt of the recommendation of the hearing officer or within (20) days of the completion of the hearing if held before the Board. The final decision of the Board shall be in writing, signed by the chairman or his designee, and shall state the action taken and the basis for such action. - ~~L.~~ A rehearing of the Board's decision may be granted for any of the following causes materially affecting the moving party's rights:
 - 1. Irregularity in the proceedings or any order or abuse of discretion, whereby the moving party was deprived of a fair hearing;
 - 2. Misconduct of the Board, its employees or hearing officer or the prevailing party;
 - 3. Accident or surprise which would not have been prevented by ordinary prudence;
 - 4. Newly discovered material evidence which could not with reasonable diligence have been discovered and produced at the original hearing;
 - 5. Excessive or insufficient penalties;
 - 6. Error in the admission or rejection of evidence or other errors of law occurring at the hearing; and
 - 7. That the decision is not justified by the evidence or is contrary to law.
- ~~M.~~ An order granting a rehearing shall specify with particularity the ground or grounds on which the rehearing is granted, and the rehearing shall cover only those matters so specified.
- A. The Board shall investigate any sworn complaint against a person or entity alleging violation of A.R.S. § 32-3001 et seq. or this Chapter. For purposes of this Section, "investigated party" means an entity or person who is the subject of a Board investigation.
- B. Board staff may request production of records or information from an investigated party or complainant, or request an interview with an employee or agent of the investigated party. The investigated party may file written objections with the Board to the Board's request within 15 days of receipt of the request. Unless the investigated party timely files an objection to the Board's request, the investigated party shall not fail to produce documents or information or attempt to make available for an interview an employee or agent of the investigated party. Board staff shall attempt to informally resolve objections to requests for documents, information, or an interview. If no resolution is reached, the matter shall be heard and decided by the Board.
- C. The Board shall not disclose documents and materials relating to an investigated matter except to the investigated party, until the matter is closed, settled by stipulation, or set for hearing under Title 41, Chapter 6, Article 10.
- D. Upon completion of the investigation, the matter shall be referred to the Board's Complaint Committee for consideration.
- E. After consideration of the matter investigated, the Complaint Committee may take the following actions:
 - 1. Instruct Board staff to conduct further investigation. After further investigation, the matter may be re-heard by the Complaint Committee or referred to the Board;
 - 2. Determine that the investigation does not demonstrate a violation of A.R.S. § 32-3001 et seq. or this Chapter and recommend to the Board that the investigation be closed; or
 - 3. Determine that the investigation demonstrates there are reasonable grounds to indicate a violation of A.R.S. § 32-3001 et seq. or this Chapter and send a report of its findings and recommendation to the Board.
- F. If the Board determines that the investigation demonstrates that there are reasonable grounds to indicate a violation of A.R.S. § 32-3001 et seq. or this Chapter, the Board shall serve notice of the Board's determination and set the matter for hearing.

R4-39-502. Investigations Hearings

All rules are written to comply with the provisions of Title XI of the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery and Enforcement Act of 1989, and state statutes applicable to real estate appraisers. The change in the existing rule is to comply with Title XI, which requires state licensing boards to recognize and enforce the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP) for federally related transactions; and A.R.S. § 32-3605(B)(1), which requires the Board to adopt standards for professional appraisal practice that are at least equal to the USPAP. The amended rule incorporates by reference the 2002 edition of the USPAP. The current rule incorporates the 2001 edition.

7. A reference to any study the agency relied on in its evaluation of or justification for the final rule and where the public may obtain or review the study, all data underlying the study, any analysis or review of the study and other supporting material:

None

8. A showing of good cause why the rule is necessary to promote a statewide interest if the rule will diminish a previous grant of authority of a political subdivision of this state:

Not applicable

9. The summary of the economic, small business, and consumer impact:

R4-46-401 is being changed to adopt the latest standards of practice in the profession, as required by federal and state law. The primary groups that would be affected would be the Board of Appraisal, the licensed or certified appraisers, and the public. The Board annually adopts the latest standards for professional appraisal practice and there should be no appreciable change in the economic impact. The key changes in the 2002 USPAP are in the Definitions; Ethics Rule; Supplemental Standards Rule; Standard 6; Statements 5 and 8; and USPAP Structure and Usability Enhancements. The cost for the new edition is $30.00. The cost is a deductible business expense.

10. A description of the changes between the proposed rules, including supplemental notices, and final rules:

None, except in the preamble, key changes to the 2002 USPAP are set out in more detail in the proposed rule and summarized in the final rule; and, technical changes suggested by the Governor's Regulatory Review Council staff.

11. A summary of the principal comments and the agency response to them:

Only one written response was received. It was from the Phoenix Chapter of the Appraisal Institute and it supported the proposed change. On January 17, 2002, the Board of Appraisal, at its regular monthly meeting, voted to adopt these rule changes and to proceed with Notice of Final Rulemaking.

12. Any other matters prescribed by statute that are applicable to the specific agency or to any specific rule or class of rules:

6. An explanation of the rule, including the agency's reasons for initiating the rule:

In December 1999, the Department completed a five-year-review report for 9 A.A.C. 6. The five-year review report was approved by the Governor's Regulatory Review Council in March 2000. As a result of the review process, the Department identified a number of changes that needed to be made in 9 A.A.C. 6. The Department also determined that those changes should be made in three separate rule packages. This is the first of those rule packages.

This rule package amends the general definitions Section within Article 1 and the definitions Sections for Articles 2 and 3, which shall remain in Article 1 until the third rule package, to implement the changes recommended in the five-year review report. This rule package also repeals the definitions Section for Article 4 that is currently located in Article 1 and replaces it with a new definitions Section within Article 4.

In Article 3, this rule package amends the Sections that pertain to sexually transmitted diseases by describing required treatment; eliminating use of the terms "suspect case," "suspect carrier," and "special control measure"; eliminating the requirement to obtain a waiver when a parent refuses administration of antibiotic eye ointment to a newborn to prevent gonorrheal ophthalmia; updating the material incorporated by reference in R9-6-331; clarifying the rules; and conforming the rules to current rulemaking format and style requirements. In addition, the Department is eliminating the requirement that local health agencies obtain identification and assure notification of individuals who may have been exposed to chlamydia infection or gonorrhea through sexual contact with a case. Rather, the diagnosing health care provider shall counsel the case about the importance of notifying individuals of possible exposure and of the need to seek treatment. Then, if one of the individuals seeks treatment from the local health agency, the local health agency shall offer or arrange for treatment. The Department is changing the notification requirement to a counseling requirement because of the number of annual cases of chlamydia infection and gonorrhea. In a typical year, more than 11,000 cases of chlamydia infection and more than 4,000 cases of gonorrhea are reported in the state of Arizona. Local health agencies have been unable to comply with the rules as written, because to do so would be overly burdensome. For the same reasons, the rules eliminate the requirement that the local health agency conduct an epidemiologic investigation of each case of chlamydia infection or gonorrhea. To ensure that follow-up is provided where needed, the chlamydia infection and gonorrhea rules add a requirement that the Department review each case report for completeness, accuracy, and the need for follow-up.

Arizona Administrative Register

The Department is removing the parental waiver requirement in the gonorrhea rule because it is not really a case control measure, but rather serves to protect the individual attending a birth from liability. Thus, it is more appropriate to leave the issue of obtaining a waiver to the discretion of the individual attending a birth.

This rule package divides the current Article 4 into 2 Articles. The revised Article 4 includes only the rules pertaining to the AIDS Drug Assistance Program (ADAP), and the new Article 9 includes only the rules pertaining to HIV-related testing. Article 4 is thus redesignated "AIDS Drug Assistance Program (ADAP)," and the new Article 9 is named "HIV-Related Testing."

The rules for ADAP are revised to clarify the rules; to update the program due to changes in drug therapy, HIV-related testing, and other areas; to add time-frames for the application process; and to conform to current rulemaking format and style requirements.

The rules concerning HIV-related testing, which are moved from Article 4 to the new Article 9, are amended to reflect statutory change; to update information in the Exhibits; to reflect changes in HIV-related testing; to clarify the rules; and to conform to current rulemaking format and style changes.

7. A reference to any study that the agency relied on in its evaluation of or justification for the proposed rule and where the public may obtain or review the study, all data underlying each study, any analysis of the study, and other supporting material:

Not applicable

8. A showing of good cause why the rule is necessary to promote a statewide interest if the rule will diminish a previous grant of authority of a political subdivision of this state:

Not applicable

9. The summary of the economic, small business, and consumer impact:

As used in this summary, minimal means less than $1,000, moderate means between $1,000 and $9,999, and substantial means $10,000 or greater.

The Department anticipates that the proposed rule changes in Article 3 will substantially benefit local health agencies and minimally benefit and minimally burden health care providers. Specifically, the changes to the rules for chlamydia infection and gonorrhea should benefit local health agencies. The current rules require local health agencies to notify all identified individuals potentially exposed through sexual contact with a case and to offer or arrange for treatment. The proposed rules do not require local health agencies to provide this notification. Instead, the proposed rules require the diagnosing health care provider to counsel the case about the importance of notifying individuals who may have been exposed through sexual contact of possible exposure and of the need to seek medical treatment. The current rules also require the local health agency to conduct an epidemiologic investigation of each reported case of chlamydia infection or gonorrhea. The proposed rules eliminate this requirement as well. Because there are more than 11,000 cases of chlamydia and more than 4,000 cases of gonorrhea reported in a typical year, the changes in the chlamydia rule should result in a substantial benefit and the changes in the gonorrhea rule should result in a substantial benefit to local health agencies.

Diagnosing health care providers should incur a minimal cost per case as a result of the new requirement to counsel each case of chlamydia infection or gonorrhea about the importance of notifying individuals who may have been exposed through sexual contact of exposure and of the need to seek treatment. The Department believes that this information is likely already provided by diagnosing health care providers. But, even for those diagnosing health care providers who do not already provide this information, the new requirement will result in only a few additional moments spent counseling each case.

The Department will incur at most a minimal cost per case as a result of the requirement to review each case report of chlamydia infection or gonorrhea for completeness, accuracy, and the need for follow-up. In reality, although not required to do so by the rules, the Department has been conducting reviews of these case reports for some time.

In addition, the proposed rules will no longer require a physician or other individual attending a birth to obtain a parental waiver if a parent refuses administration of antibiotic eye ointment to the newborn to prevent gonorrheal ophthalmia. This could result in a minimal benefit for each health care provider or midwife who attends births, because these individuals will no longer be required to take the time to have the waiver completed. Realistically, however, the Department anticipates that, due to liability concerns, many of these individuals may choose to obtain a waiver even if it is not required.

Arizona Administrative Register
Notices of Final Rulemaking

The proposed changes to the counseling requirements for a case with herpes genitalis may result in a minimal additional burden per case for diagnosing health care providers. The proposed rules require that a case be informed of treatment options and chemoprophylaxis and other measures to prevent transmission. This may take several minutes more than was spent previously in counseling a case. It is likely, however, that this information was already being provided in spite of its not being required by the rules.

In the proposed HIV rule, ethnicity is added as a field of epidemiological information to be collected from individuals who opt for anonymous testing. The addition of this field should result in a minimal burden for anonymous testing subjects, who will have to check an additional box on a form. The change may also result in a minimal burden for each anonymous testing site, because the forms currently used may have to be changed to add ethnicity.

In addition, the proposed HIV rule updates the material incorporated by reference as the standard for school district personnel who handle blood or bodily fluids. The new reference costs $27 in hard copy or $12 in microfiche. Each school district will thus be minimally impacted by the need to purchase at least one copy of the reference.

The renaming of Article 4 should minimally benefit each individual interested in the AIDS Drug Assistance Program (ADAP) because the rules will be easier to find.¹ Previously, the name of the program itself did not appear in the rules, and the rules for ADAP were combined in an Article that also included HIV-related testing provisions and Exhibits.

[¹ In June 2001, ADAP had 1,025 enrolled individuals, provided services to 716 enrolled individuals, and enrolled 44 individuals. The average amount ADAP expended for each of the 716 individuals was $745. These numbers fluctuate from month to month, and individuals cycle into and out of ADAP as their eligibility changes. It is impossible to estimate how many additional individuals might be interested in applying for ADAP.]

The proposed rules for Article 4 revise the ADAP rules by eliminating the waiting list for ADAP, which should result in a minimal-to-moderate benefit to the Department due to a savings in administrative time spent maintaining the waiting list. Additionally, the proposed rules will benefit individuals who may have believed that they were ineligible for ADAP because the current rules state specific dollar amounts for maximum income and specific HIV-related conditions or test results necessary to be eligible. The proposed rules reflect the eligibility standards currently used by ADAP for income and HIV status: 300% of the federal poverty level and a medical diagnosis of HIV disease or infection.

The proposed rules also reflect the changes made to ADAP as the result of a July 2000 policy issued by the United States Department of Health & Human Services, HIV/AIDS Bureau, requiring Ryan White CARE Act grant recipients to provide benefits to American Indians or Alaska Natives who are otherwise eligible for program benefits even if those individuals could obtain the same benefits through Indian Health Services. The economic impact of these changes is not the result of the rules, but rather is the result of the federal policy.

Each ADAP applicant or enrolled individual may also realize a minimal benefit from the use of the term "primary care provider" rather than "physician" for purposes of diagnosis, completion of forms, and prescription of drugs for ADAP participation. The proposed rules reflect the Department's awareness that an individual's primary care provider is not always a physician, but may be a registered nurse practitioner or a physician assistant.

The proposed ADAP rules also require the primary care provider portion of the follow-up application to be completed only after every 24 months of continuous enrollment, rather than every six months as is currently required. This could save each individual enrolled for a continuous 24-month period three special trips to the primary care provider just to complete follow-up applications and would also save each primary care provider the time of doing that portion of the follow-up application on those three occasions, resulting in a minimal benefit to the primary care provider for each patient enrolled in ADAP and to each individual enrolled in ADAP. Additionally, the proposed rules allow submission of the most recent HIV-related tests rather than requiring submission of specific HIV-related tests. This may minimally benefit each individual applying for or enrolled in ADAP who thus may not pay for a test that was previously required for ADAP but that otherwise would not have been ordered.

Also, rather than having an eligibility determination last for only one year, the proposed ADAP rules have an eligibility determination last indefinitely, based on submission of a follow-up application and current proof of income after every six months and of the primary care provider portion of the follow-up application after every 24 continuous months. This will result in a minimal benefit to each enrolled individual and a minimal-to-moderate benefit to the Department, because less paperwork will be required to remain eligible for and to administer ADAP. In the same vein, the proposed rules will no longer limit a prescription to a one-month supply with five refills. Rather, the proposed rules do not limit the number of refills and require that the prescription be written for the quantity in the manufacturer's original packaging. This should be more convenient for each primary care provider and enrolled individual and for the Department and should minimally benefit each.

Finally, the proposed ADAP rules add a time-frames Section and expressly require ADAP to comply with the Administrative Procedure Act (APA) rather than the appeals Section, which is being repealed. The addition of time-frames will result in a moderate burden on the Department. ADAP has not always provided notice in writing and will now do so. The repeal of the appeals Section should not burden any party, because ADAP was already following the APA for appeals.

Notices of Final Rulemaking

The creation of a new Article 9 for HIV-Related Testing should minimally benefit individuals who seek to use these rules. It was difficult to find the rules in Article 4 because they were located at the end of the Article, which primarily dealt with ADAP, not HIV-related testing. The proposed rule changes to the consent Section and to the Exhibits should not result in any economic impact other than the need for individuals who order HIV-related tests to copy and use the revised Exhibits. This cost should be minimal for each individual who orders tests.

The changes to the Section on court-ordered HIV-related testing should result in a minimal economic benefit to clinical laboratories that run HIV-related tests, to health care providers that order HIV-related tests, and to individuals who pay for HIV-related tests. Rather than requiring use of the enzyme immunoassay test, a retest of reactive blood in duplicate, and a test of repeatedly reactive blood with the Western blot test, the proposed rules allow use of any licensed test for HIV screening and require retesting of a repeatedly reactive sample with a licensed supplemental or confirmatory test or as recommended by the original test manufacturer's package insert. This gives health care providers who order HIV-related tests and clinical laboratories that run HIV-related tests a great deal of freedom in the tests that are used and should also allow the individuals paying for HIV-related tests some choice in the tests used. Additionally, the proposed rule will allow testing of bodily substances other than blood, thereby permitting use of additional tests and of new technologies as they are licensed by the FDA.

The Department will incur the costs of the rulemaking process, which are moderate.

10. A description of the changes between the proposed rules, including supplemental notices, and final rules:

In R9-6-103(8), the Department changed the Centers for Disease Control's May 1994 HIV Counseling, Testing, and Referral Standards and Guidelines to the Centers for Disease Control's November 2001 Revised Guidelines for HIV Counseling, Testing, and Referral. This does not represent a substantial change, because the counseling and testing sites that this change affects are already required by contract to comply with the new Guidelines.

In R9-6-902(B)(1), the Department added two fields of permissible information, to be consistent with current practice.

Throughout the rules, the Department made minor changes to make the rules more clear, concise, and understandable.

11. A summary of the principal comments and the agency response to them:

Although the Department held three oral proceedings on the rules, only one individual attended. That individual did not have any comments on the rules themselves and merely asked several questions to clarify whether the rule changes would impact the operations of that individual's organization. The Department answered the questions.

12. Any other matters prescribed by statute that are applicable to the specific agency or to any specific rule or class of rules:

EXHIBIT A. CONSENT FOR HIV-RELATED TESTING

Consent for HIV-related Testing
Information on HIV

The Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) is the virus that causes Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome (AIDS). HIV is spread through the exchange of blood (including transfusion) or sexual fluids (semen and vaginal secretions) and sometimes through breast milk. HIV can be transmitted from mother to baby during pregnancy or childbirth.

HIV-related Testing

There are several laboratory tests for HIV. The most common is the antibody test, which is a blood test that detects antibodies produced by the body in response to infection with HIV.

A positive antibody test consists of a repeatedly reactive (the same specimen testing positive twice) enzyme immunoassay (EIA) and a reactive Western blot or other confirmatory test. A positive antibody test means that an individual is infected with HIV; however, this does not always mean that the individual has AIDS. Research indicates that early and regular medical care is important to the health of an individual with HIV. Certain treatments are now available to treat HIV-associated illnesses.

A negative antibody test indicates that no detectable antibodies are present in the blood. An individual may not have antibodies because the individual is not infected with HIV or because detectable antibodies have not yet been made in response to infection. The production of these antibodies could take 3 months or longer.

Therefore, in certain cases, an individual may be infected with HIV and yet test negative. Individuals with a history of HIV risk behaviors within the past 3 to 6 months should consider retesting.

Like any test, HIV-related testing is not accurate 100% of the time and may occasionally produce both false positive and false negative results.

Means to Reduce Risk for Contracting or Spreading HIV

Risk of contracting or spreading HIV can be reduced by avoiding or decreasing contact with blood and sexual fluids (semen and vaginal secretions). Some methods of decreasing the risk of contracting or spreading HIV include abstaining from sexual intercourse, using methods that limit exposure to body fluids during intercourse (such as the proper use of condoms), not engaging in injecting drug use, not sharing needles, or using bleach and water to clean needles and syringes. The use of certain medications by an HIV-infected woman during pregnancy may reduce the chances of HIV transmission from mother to child.

Disclosure of Test Results

I understand that if the HIV test results are positive, the physician or facility representative conducting the test will make reasonable efforts to notify me of the results at the address or phone number I have provided, and will provide or arrange for counseling as required by Arizona state laws and regulations regarding (1) HIV, (2) AIDS, and (3) appropriate precautions to reduce the likelihood of transmission of the virus to others. I agree to assume all risks that may result if I cannot be contacted.

I understand that Arizona law and regulations require that if my test results are positive, they will be submitted to local and state health departments. Information received by these health departments may only be released: (1) if there is written authorization from the individual being tested, (2) for statistical purposes without individual identifying information, or (3) as otherwise required or allowed by law.

Identifying Information

I also understand that the physician or facility may report to the Arizona Department of Health Services identifiable 3rd parties such as a spouse or sex partner who may be at risk of contracting the virus if I do not release this information. Finally, I understand that the test results may be placed in a medical record kept by the facility or person administering the test and that persons involved in providing or paying for my health care may have access to that information.

Additional Sources of Information on HIV

Additional information regarding testing for HIV is available through your county health department and, in the Phoenix metropolitan area, (602) 234-2752, the Tucson metropolitan area, (520) 791-7676, or outside the Phoenix area, 1-800-334-1540. Consent

I have been given the opportunity to ask questions regarding this information and have had my questions answered to my satisfaction. I understand that this test can be performed anonymously at a public health agency. I also understand that I may withdraw my consent at any time before a blood sample is taken in order to conduct a test, and that I may be asked to put my decision to withdraw my consent in writing if I have signed this consent. I also understand that this is a voluntary test and that I have a right to refuse to be tested.

My signature below indicates that I have received and understand the information I have been given and voluntarily consent to and request HIV-related testing.

EXHIBIT B. CONSENTIMIENTO PARA LA PRUEBA DE VIH

Consentimiento Para la Prueba de VIH

Información sobre el VIH

El virus de Inmunodeficiencia Humana (VIH) es el virus que causa el Síndrome de Inmunodeficiencia Adquirida (SIDA). VIH se transmite a través del contacto con sangre (incluyendo la transfusión) o fluidos sexuales (semen y secreciones vaginales) y en algunas ocasiones a través de la leche materna. VIH puede ser transmitido de la madre al bebé durante el embarazo o al momento del parto.

La prueba del VIH

Existen pruebas de laboratorio para saber si una persona está infectada con el VIH. La más común es la prueba de anticuerpos. Esta es un examen de sangre que detecta los anticuerpos producidos por el cuerpo al reaccionar contra la infección por VIH.

Un examen de anticuerpos positivo consiste de una prueba por inmunoenálisis enzimático (EIA) (realizada dos veces en cada espécimen) y una prueba reactiva por Western Blot u otras pruebas confirmatorias. El resultado positivo a la prueba de anticuerpos quiere decir que el individuo está infectado con el VIH; sin embargo, esto no siempre quiere decir que el individuo tenga el SIDA. Investigaciones médicas señalan que atención médica temprana y continua es importante para la salud de una persona con el VIH. Hoy en día se dispone de tratamientos para retardar las enfermedades asociadas con el SIDA.

Un examen de anticuerpos negativo indica que no se han detectado anticuerpos en la sangre. Un individuo puede no tener anticuerpos por que el individuo no está infectado(a) o porque aún no se han producido suficientes anticuerpos contra la infección. Estos anticuerpos pueden tardar tres meses o más para ser producidos. De tal manera, en ciertos casos, un individuo puede estar infectado con el VIH y su prueba resultar negativa. Los individuos que han tenido comportamiento de alto riesgo en los últimos tres a seis meses deberían pensar en repetir la prueba.

Como cualquier prueba, la prueba del VIH no es 100% segura y en alguna ocasión puede producir resultados falsos ya sea positivos o negativos.

Maneras de reducir el riesgo de infección o transmisión del VIH

El riesgo de contraer o transmitir el VIH se puede reducir al evitar contacto con la sangre y fluidos sexuales (semen y secreciones vaginales). Algunos métodos para disminuir el riesgo de infección o transmisión del VIH incluyen: abstinencia sexual, usar métodos que limitan el contacto de fluidos corporales durante la relaciones sexuales (como el uso correcto de condones), no usar drogas intravenosas, no compartir agujas, y usar "cloro" (blanqueador) y agua para limpiar las jeringas y las agujas. En mujeres infectadas con VIH, el uso de ciertos medicamentos durante el embarazo, puede reducir el riesgo de la transmisión del VIH de madre a hijo.

El resultado de la prueba

Entiendo que si el resultado de la prueba del VIH es positivo, el doctor o el representante de la institución que hizo el examen va a hacer esfuerzos suficientes para notificarme del resultado a la dirección (domicilio) o al teléfono que he proporcionado y que me dará información, cumpliendo con los requisitos de la ley estatal de Arizona, sobre (1) el VIH, (2) el SIDA, y (3) las precauciones necesarias para reducir la posibilidad de transmisión del virus a otras personas. Estoy de acuerdo en asumir todos los riesgos que resultarán de no poder contactarme.

Entiendo que la ley estatal de Arizona exige que si el resultado de mi prueba es positivo, éste se reportará a los departamentos de salud local y estatal. La información que estos departamentos reciben solamente puede ser revelada a otras personas: (1) si hay una autorización por escrito de la persona que se ha hecho la prueba, (2) por razones de estudios estadísticos sin revelar la identidad del individuo, o (3) por cualquier otra razón que la ley permita.

También entiendo que el doctor o la institución puede reportar al Departamento de Salud del Estado de Arizona, la identidad de terceras personas como: los esposos(as) o los compañeros(as) sexuales que pueden estar en riesgo de contraer con el virus si decido no darles esta información. Por último, entiendo que el resultado de la prueba puede guardarse con el resto de mi información médica en la agencia o por la persona que hizo el examen; y que las personas encargadas de proveer o pagar por el cuidado de mi salud pueden tener acceso a esta información.
